Dear [REDACTED]

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (FOI) REQUEST

I refer to your application under the Freedom of Information Act 2016 (the Act) received by the Education Directorate (the Directorate on 24 August 2022, in which you sought access to:

'All information contained in Record 2 of the FOI request that was released on 14 October 2022, which relates to Phillip Swimming Pool and Ice Skating Centre.'

I am an Information Officer appointed by the Director-General under section 18 of the Act to deal with access applications made under Part 5 of the Act.

The decision on your access application was required to be provided by 30 December 2022.

Decision on access

Searches were completed and one record was identified that falls within the scope of your request.

I have decided to grant partial access to the record with deletions applied. The record is provided at Attachment A.

My access decision is detailed further in the following statement of reasons.

Material considered

In reaching my access decision, I have taken the following into account:

- the Act, particularly sections 16, 17 and 50, and schedule 2;
- the content of the record that falls within the scope of your request; and
- the Human Rights Act 2004.

Reasons for decision

I have considered the record that is relevant to your request in accordance with the requirements of the Act, particularly section 6(a) which provides for a right of access to government information unless access would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest. Contrary to the public interest information is defined at section 16 of the FOI Act as information that is taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose under Schedule 1; or the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest under the test set out in section 17.

Section 50 of the FOI Act provides for records to be partially released with deletions applied where they contain contrary to the public interest information that can be removed, enabling the remainder of the record to be released. This provision has been applied where appropriate.

Information taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose

The record does not contain information that is taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose.

Information, the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest

The public interest test requires the identification of factors favouring disclosure and non-disclosure, the balancing of those factors, and a decision whether, on balance, disclosure of the information would be contrary to the public interest.

I have decided that the applicable factors favouring disclosure, as listed at Schedule 2.1 of the Act, are that the released information could reasonably be expected to:

- promote open discussion of public affairs and enhance government's accountability (Schedule 2.1(a)(i));
- contribute to positive and informed debate on important issues or matters of public interest (Schedule 2.1(a)(ii));
- inform the community of the government's operations, including the policies, guidelines and codes of conduct followed by the government in its dealings with members of the community (Schedule 2.1(a)(iii));
- reveal the reason for a government decision and any background or contextual information that informed the decision (Schedule 2.1(a)(viii)); and
- reveal environmental or health risks or measures relating to public health and safety (Schedule 2, 2.2(a)(xi)).

I have decided that the applicable factor favouring non-disclosure in the public interest, as listed at Schedule 2.2 of the Act, is that the information could reasonably be expected to prejudice the protection of an individual's right to privacy or any other right under the Human Rights Act 2004 (Schedule 2.2(a)(ii)).

I have considered the factors favouring disclosure and the factor favouring non-disclosure.

I acknowledge the positive contribution of informed debate on important issues and transparency of government processes, as well as the public interest that is served by disclosing information relating to risks to public health and safety.

I place significant weight on the right to privacy of individuals and their right to have their personal information protected. I have decided that their right to privacy in relation to their personal information has a higher standing of public interest not to disclose, than the public interest in disclosing this information. Accordingly, the signatures of government employees and names of employees of other organisations have been deleted from the information being provided to you.

In addition, information that is outside the scope of your request has been removed, including whole pages of information in some instances.

Charges

There is no charge associated with this request because the number of pages being released to you does not exceed the threshold of 50 specified at section 104 of the Act.

Online publishing – disclosure log

Under section 28 of the Act, the Directorate maintains an online record of access applications called a disclosure log. Information about your request, my decision and the records released to you in response to your access application will be published in the Directorate's disclosure log between three and 10 working days after a decision on access has been provided to you. Your personal information will not be published.

You may view the Directorate's disclosure log at https://www.education.act.gov.au/about-us/freedom_of_information/disclosure-log.

Ombudsman review

My decision on your access request is a reviewable decision as identified in Schedule 3 of the Act. You have the right to seek Ombudsman review of this outcome under section 73 of the Act within 20 working days from the day that my decision is published in the Directorate's disclosure log, or a longer period allowed by the Ombudsman.

If you wish to request a review of my decision you may write to the Ombudsman at:

The ACT Ombudsman
GPO Box 442
CANBERRA ACT 2601

Email: actfoi@ombudsman.gov.au

ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal (ACAT) review

Under section 84 of the Act, if a decision is made under section 82(1) on an Ombudsman review, you may apply to the ACAT for review of the Ombudsman decision.

Further information may be obtained from the ACAT at:
