Dear [REDACTED]

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (FOI) REQUEST

I refer to your application under section 30 of the Freedom of Information Act 2016 (the FOI Act), received by the Education Directorate (the Directorate) on 19 December 2023, in which you sought access to:

Records relating to Telopea Park School, specifically:

- 1. Copies of the consolidated anonymous parent surveys undertaken by the school in 2023 for the conseil de classe;*
- 2. Copies of all correspondence for the past year from Florence Llopis (staff member) to any staff of the French Embassy about the school board or the conseil de classe; and*
- 3. Latest satisfaction survey results for the school that compares the results to similar ACT schools.*

I am an Information Officer appointed by the Director-General under section 18 of the FOI Act to deal with access applications made under Part 5 of the FOI Act.

In accordance with section 40 of the FOI Act, the Directorate was required to provide a decision on your access application within 30 working days of receipt, being 12 February 2024. As foreshadowed in the acknowledgement letter sent to you 5 January 2024, third party consultation was required, and the due date extended to 4 March 2024.

This letter provides the decision for points 1 and 3 of your request.

There are some complexities associated with point 2. While consultation is underway with the French Embassy, it is unlikely to be resolved by the due date. Please be assured that we are working to complete this as quickly as possible and will keep you informed.

Decision on access

Searches were completed for relevant records and 26 records were identified that fall within points 1 and 3 of your request.

I have included as Attachment A to this decision the schedule of relevant records. This provides a description of each record that falls within the scope of your request and the access decision for each of those records.

In summary, my decision is to provide:

- Full access to 13 records; and
- Partial access to 13 records with redactions applied.

The records released to you are provided as Attachment B to this letter.

My access decisions are detailed further in the following statement of reasons.

Material considered

In reaching my access decision, I have taken the following into account:

- the content of the records that fall within the scope of your request;
- the FOI Act, particularly sections 16, 17, 35 and 50, and schedules 1 and 2;
- the Human Rights Act 2014;
- the Information Privacy Act 2014; and
- the FOI Guidelines issued under section 66 of the FOI Act by the Ombudsman.

Reasons for decision

I have considered the records that are relevant to your request in accordance with the requirements of the FOI Act.

Section 6(a) of the Act provides for a right of access to government information unless access would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest. Contrary to the public interest information is defined at section 16 of the FOI Act as information that is taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose under Schedule 1; or the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest under the test set out in section 17.

Section 50 of the FOI Act provides for records to be partially released with deletions applied where they contain contrary to the public interest information that can be removed, which enables the remainder of the record to be released. This provision has been applied where appropriate.

Information taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose

None of the records contain information that is taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose.

Information, the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest

The public interest test requires the identification of factors favouring disclosure and non-disclosure, the balancing of those factors, and a decision whether, on balance, disclosure of the information would be contrary to the public interest.

I have decided that the factors favouring disclosure, as listed at Schedule 2.1 of the FOI Act, are that disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to:

- Promote open discussion of public affairs and enhance the government's accountability (Schedule 2, 2.1(a)(i))
- Contribute to positive and informed debate on important issues or matters of public interest (Schedule 2, 2.1(a)(ii))
- Inform the community of the government's operations, including the policies, guidelines and codes of conduct followed by the government in its dealings with members of the community (Schedule 2, 2.1(a)(iii))

I have decided that the applicable factor favouring non-disclosure, as listed at Schedule 2.2 of the FOI Act, is that disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to prejudice the protection of an individual's right to privacy or any other right under the Human Rights Act 2004 (Schedule 2, 2.2(a)(ii)).

I have considered the factors favouring disclosure and the factor favouring non-disclosure.

I place significant weight on the right to privacy of individuals and their right to have their personal information protected. I have decided that their right to privacy in relation to their personal information has a higher standing of public interest not to disclose, than the public interest in disclosing this information. This position is informed by considerations of the requirements of the Human Rights Act 2004 and the Information Privacy Act 2014. Section 12(a) of the Human Rights Act provides that everyone has the right 'not to have his or her privacy, family, home or correspondence interfered with unlawfully or arbitrarily'. Ombudsman review decisions addressing this matter have stated that this "can essentially be viewed as the right of an individual to preserve their personal sphere from interference by others". In addition, the Territory Privacy Principles contained in the Information Privacy Act 2014, set out the expectation that, in ordinary circumstances, individuals are required to give consent before their personal information, which includes information that could lead to them being identified, is disclosed. Accordingly, third party personal information has been deleted.

In addition, information that is outside the scope of points 1 and 3 of your request has been removed.

Charges

As the number of pages released does not materially exceed the threshold of 50 set out in the Act, processing charges do not apply to the processing of your request.

Online publishing – disclosure log

Under section 28 of the Act, the Directorate maintains an online record of access applications called a disclosure log. Information about your request, my decision and records released to you in response to your access application will be published in the Directorate's disclosure log between three and 10 working days after a decision on access has been provided to you. Your personal information will not be published.

You may view the Directorate's disclosure log at
