Dear [REDACTED]

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (FOI) REQUEST:

I refer to your application under section 30 of the Freedom of Information Act 2016 (the Act), received by the Education Directorate (the Directorate) on 2 November 2022, in which you sought access to:

Records relating to the Teach for Australia program, specifically:

- 1. Any report or ministerial brief regarding the ACT Government's decision to end the Teach for Australia program in ACT schools in 2018*
- 2. Any summary of the costs of the program and/or attrition and retention rates of associates employed as part of the program*

I am an Information Officer appointed by the Director-General under section 18 of the Act to deal with access applications made under Part 5 of the Act.

The Education Directorate was required to provide a decision on your access application by 30 November 2022. Thank you for agreeing to two extensions of processing time requested by the Directorate to 14 December 2022 and 6 January 2023. Your patience and consideration in granting the extensions is appreciated.

Decision on access

Searches were completed for relevant records and four records were identified that fall within the scope of your request.

In summary, my decision is:

- partial access to three records with deletions applied; and
- non-release of one record.

Included as Attachment A to this decision is the schedule of relevant records. This provides a description of each record that falls within the scope of your request and the access decision for each of those records.

The records released to you are provided at Attachment B.

My access decisions are detailed further in the following statement of reasons.

Material considered

In reaching my access decision, I have taken the following into account:

- the FOI Act, particularly sections 16, 17 and 50, and schedule 2;
- the content of the records that fall within the scope of your request; and
- the Human Rights Act 2004.

Reasons for decision

I have considered the records that are relevant to your request in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

Access refused

Information that is publicly available

In accordance with sections 35(1)(d), 43(1)(d) and 45(a) of the Act, access to information within the scope of a FOI request may be refused if the information is made publicly available by the Directorate or by another agency or Minister. The information this applies to is a response to a Question on Notice in the ACT Legislative Assembly that is available in Hansard at <https://www.hansard.act.gov.au/hansard/9th-assembly/2019/PDF/20190221.pdf> - see pages numbered 677 and 678.

Contrary to the public interest information

Information taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose

None of the records contain information that is taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose.

Information, the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest

The public interest test has been applied to the records to determine if they contain information that would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest to disclose.

The public interest test requires the identification of factors favouring disclosure and non-disclosure, the balancing of those factors, and a decision whether, on balance, disclosure of the information would be contrary to the public interest.

I have decided that the factors favouring disclosure, as listed at Schedule 2.1 of the Act, are that disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to:

- promote open discussion of public affairs and enhance government's accountability (Schedule 2, 2.1(a)(i));
- contribute to positive and informed debate on important issues or matters of public interest (Schedule 2, 2.1(a)(ii));
- inform the community of the government's operations, including the policies, guidelines and codes of conduct followed by the government in its dealings with members of the community (Schedule 2, 2.1(a)(iii)), and
- reveal the reason for a government decision and any background or contextual information that informed the decision (Schedule 2, 2.2(a)(viii)).

I have decided that the applicable factors favouring non-disclosure in the public interest, as listed at Schedule 2.2 of the Act, are that the information could reasonably be expected to prejudice the protection of an individual's right to privacy or any other right under the Human Rights Act 2004 (Schedule 2, 2.2(a)(ii)).

I have considered the factors favouring disclosure and the factors favouring non-disclosure.

I acknowledge the positive contribution of open discussion of public affairs, contributing to informed debate on important issues and the factors that underpin transparency of government processes as being central tenets to the effectiveness of representative democracy. As such, most of the information is released.

I place significant weight on the right to privacy of individuals and their right to have their personal information protected. I have decided that their right to privacy in relation to their personal information has a higher standing of public interest not to disclose, than the public interest in disclosing this information. Accordingly, third party personal information, comprising signatures and small numbers of employees that could enable individuals to be identified, has been deleted

In addition, information that is outside of the scope of your request has been deleted from the records.

Processing charges are not applicable for your request because the number of pages does not exceed the threshold of 50 set at section 104(4) of the Act.
